Proposed Cootamundra Saleyard Lighting and Electrical Upgrade Program

Cootamundra–Gundagai Regional Council (CGRC), identified the need of upgrading lighting and electricity for the saleyards located at Rinkin Street, Cootamundra.

Cootamundra saleyards has recently been upgraded by demolishing and with the construction of two new sheep loading ramps and associated infrastructure and upgrade to electric winches with the $77,600 Federal government contribution and $19,400 contribution from Council under Heavy vehicle safety & productivity program round three livestock projects.

After, this recent upgrade, Council proposed to improve the lighting at the yards. The existing lighting is currently inadequate and old style which is expensive to run and hence upgrading of the lighting and electrical system is required.

Estimated cost of Cootamundra Saleyards Lighting and Electrical Upgrade Program is $300k
