NEW IRRIGATION FOR COOTAMUNDRA COUNTRY CLUB

A large crowd gathered at Cootamundra Country Club, to mark the opening of the new irrigation system on the Golf Course. The project is the result of a $1.35 million grant from the NSW State Government. The Stronger Country Communities Fund Round Two program is a NSW State Government initiative and has been administered by Cootamundra-Gundagai Regional Council (CGRC). The Project will ensure and enhance the future long-term sustainability of the Cootamundra Country Club facilities. Founded in 1895 the course is the oldest 18-hole country course in New South Wales. The Club uses Cootamundra - Gundagai Regional Council treated sewerage water for irrigation. A new maintenance shed is nearing completion and work is soon to commence on new cart paths as part of the overall grant.

NEW COMMUNITY GARDEN TAKING SHAPE IN GUNDAGAI

The Gundagai Community Garden Project has seen raised planting beds and new water tanks installed. The project is the result of a Stronger Country Communities Round Two Grant, an initiative of the NSW State Government and administered by Council (CGRC). The community garden is aimed at creating a greater sense of community within Gundagai. The works are being carried out on the corner of Otway Street and First Avenue. The garden will include a garden shed, 30 garden beds, and irrigation. Secure fencing, picnic bench, a barbeque, a hedge of natives and rain water tanks will be installed all for the use of the community and allow them to enjoy locally grown, fresh produce.
